We had just a little faint hope that Governor Manning, when he named his delegates to the commercial congress in Charleston, would honor us with an appointment, so that we would have an excuse to take a day off and run down and take a look over the battle-ships and the battery, but we have looked over the delegates named from Newberry and we looked again, but our name does not appear. But, thanks to Secretary Snell and the general committee of the Southern Commercial congress, we have received a very cordial invitation, and this is added: "We sincerely hope you will be able to accept this invitation and will be glad to hear from you at your earliest convenience in order that we may provide accommodations and reservation at the various social functions." Thanks. We will try to go if for only a day.

We are pleased to see that the railroads are going to make some improvements on the union station in Columbia. For a modern and lately built station, we think it is the most inconvenient and poorly arranged of any station we have ever seen. It is to be hoped that while they are at it again they will do the job right.

We have not seen where any one has issued a call for the meeting to organize that county fair association. No doubt we have overlooked it and the meeting will be held very soon. Why wait? Now is the time to organize and get to work on the arrangements for the next fair. Who is the live business man that will take the lead. That is all that is needed. Don't be bashful when there is opportunity to serve your county. Take hold and do something. We will help you and stand by you in your efforts, for we know the thing will succeed.

We drove out to the country place on Wednesday evening of Mr. C. S. Suber to attend the marriage of his only daughter, Miss Mary Frances, to Mr. Patrick Bowers Mitchell of Prosperity. It was a delightful fall afternoon. The weather was all that could be desired. Cool and crisp and the heavens studded with myriads of stars. It would seem that the blessings of a kindly providence were bestowed upon the newly wed couple as they start out on the journey of life together.

It was one of your old-time country weddings. As you approached the home bonfires were burning and the negro cabins were surrounded by the servants in their best bib and tucker to honor the marriage of the young mistress.

And there were some two hundred friends of the family present and there was a plenty to eat for all, and such fine country ham and home raised turkey and home-made pound cake and home-made fruit cake and chicken salad, and the way some of these town fellows did eat would make your heart glad to know that they had such appetites, but who wouldn't be tempted to eat such good cooking.

And then the Appalachian highway makes it a pleasure to drive out that way. It is not as good as it might be, but the good people along the way intend to see to it that it is kept dragged and some time in the near future it is hoped to have it widened.

Mr. Charley Suber is one of the largest and most successful farmers in the county and he raises his own hog and hominy.

We wish the young couple bon voyage.

According to a legal advertisement, Greenwood's town council says that every person or persons dealing in the sale of "fresh sausage" are subject to paying a license of $5.00 per annum. Which means of course that dealers in stale and sour sausage may sell their sausage free of tax. Why this ban on fresh sausage?

SOCIAL.

The Drayton Rutherford chapter, U. D. C., held a most pleasant social meeting with Mrs. James McIntosh Tuesday afternoon. The usual historical program was dispensed with in order to have time for the reports of the delegates from the state convention. Quite a lengthy and interesting report was read by Mrs. P. E. Scott, after which refreshments were served.

The Calvin Crozier chapter also held a pleasant meeting this week, with the chapter's president, Miss Pauline Gilder. The report was given by the president herself, who attended the convention. After all business had been refreshments were served.

Mr. Zack Wright gave a delightful dinner to a few friends Thursday evening at his beautiful new colonial home. Among those enjoying his hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wright, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Houseal, Miss Sara Houseal, Miss Pauline Gilder, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith Langford and Mr. John Goggans.

Little August Klettner was given a surprise party for his ninth birthday anniversary. All the members of his grade at school were present and a number of other friends.

Games were played by the little ones and August received quite a number of gifts from the children. Delightful E. Wicker, Newberry, S. C.

Death of Mr. Jas. Taylor.

Mr. James Taylor, son of Mr. Jno. M. Taylor of Newberry, died at the Columbia hospital Wednesday night of pellagra, from which he had been a sufferer for some time, having gone to the hospital last spring. The remains will be brought to Newberry and the interment will take place Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Rosemont cemetery. Mr. Taylor was 28 years of age and is survived by his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Alma Metz, one little son, Harry, his father and several brothers and sisters.

Small Fire.

Wednesday night about 8:30 the fire bell sounded and the usual stampede occurred. The fire was near the Farmers' oil mill. The fire was a four-room negro cabin belonging to Mrs. R. L. Paysinger. There was no insurance. The fire was in dangerous proximity to the Standard Oil tanks, but fortunately the fire was extinguished by Newberry's most efficient fire department without further damage.

Kinard-Lominack.

Mr. Frank Lominack, who holds a responsible position at Summer Bros. Hardware company, went up to Ninety Six Thursday afternoon, where he and Miss Bessie Kinard were happily married. The bride and groom left immediately for a tour of Florida.

Pleasing Tribute to Talent and Worth.

Spartanburg Herald.

Dr. S. T. Hallman of this city recently made a violin for a prominent gentleman of another city, who writes as follows:

"My Dear Doctor:

"The violin was received in good shape and we are delighted with it, not only because it is a beautiful piece of workmanship, with tone exceeding sweet, but the most valuable thing connected with it to us, is that it was made by you in a spirit of love; and long after the maker has gone to his heavenly reward its strings, under loving touch, will respond with the great and loving soul of its maker, and ever bring to the minds and hearts of those who knew and loved you a blessed memory of your kind and gentle Christ-like spirit. We all wish you many, many years of usefulness to your church and to mankind."
